Matt gold movable recessed spotlight that can be easily integrated into the ceiling. This recessed ceiling light is one of the most popular in its range for interior lighting projects. The elegant matt gold finish of its zamak structure gives a different touch when it comes to lighting any room. With a simple design, the recessed light fitting has the added bonus of being movable. Thus, once installed in the ceiling, you can change the position of the light point with an angle of 30° to direct the lighting. High quality and durable, Made in Spain using injection moulded zamak with a matt gold finish. Front replacement bulb.
